Newsletter

November 2020 Cardiac Support

Dear Members and Friends November 2020

Welcome to my November newsletter, once again the government have decided to lock down most places which we like to frequent, but I am pleased to hear that we will be able to visit our relations in care homes under strict conditions not to give grief to those who work looking after our dear ones.

I would like to thank John Lewis an esteemed member of our group who has kindly made a substantial donation to the King of Hearts in the name of his good friend George Scott, John thank you for your generosity the money will be used in a responsible manner.

The committee is hoping to meet this month via Zoom in order to consider the future of the club so if any member has questions to put to the committee could you please contact Durham or myself in order that we can discuss your concerns.

What will Christmas be like this year, and how will we spend it, with our loved ones I hope as Christmas should remain sacred thank god, I am sure we will all attempt to make the festive season as near as possible to what it would be in normal situations be a happy one. We will soon be paying homage to our relations who never returned home from the wars which took them away from us. So please be generous by buying a poppy in order to support those who are still with us.

Time to sign off now so that Durham and Peter can get this letter out to you all, so I wish you all my very best wishes and I would like to remind you all keep well and safe.
Regards

Henry Phillips Chairman

We will not be publishing a newsletter in December The next Newsletter will be in January 2021. Looking forward to seeing you all then.

Tender Memory

A man walks into a bar and has a couple of beers. When he has finished the barman tells him that he owes £6.00.

But I have already paid, don't you remember? Asks the customer.
Okay the barman agrees. If you say you paid, you paid.

Then he goes outside and tells the first person he sees that the barman can't keep track of whether the customer have paid or not.

The second man rushes in, orders a beer and later tries the same trick. The bartender this time replies, if you say you paid. I`ll take your word for it.

The customer then goes into the street, sees an old friend and tells him how to get a free drink.
The man hurries into the bar orders three pints and begins to drink rapidly, when suddenly the bartender leans over and says.

You know a strange thing happened here this afternoon.

Two men were drinking beer neither of them paid and both claimed they did. The next person who tries that is going to regret it.

I'm sorry to hear that the final patron replies. Just give me my change and I`ll be on my way.

Senior Symphony

One evening while attending one of George Gershwin`s parties.

Groucho Marks was approached by a fellow guest.

Do you think Gershwin`s melodies will be played a hundred years from now? He asked

Sure Groucho replied if George is here to play them.
