Dear Members and Friends June 2022

Welcome to my June edition of the 2022 newsletter, We are halfway through 2022 where on earth has the last six months gone, I hope that this my June newsletter finds you all safe and well.

For all those members who were able to attend the May meeting Karen's friend Mags gave us an insight how we could help a friend or member of the public who might be experiencing a heart problem and those group members who took part in reviving the dummy (Sam) and using the training defibrillator found it to be a useful excercise. Thank you Karen and Mags for taking us through this demonstration. I would like to thank June, Karen, and Durham for looking after the raffle, also I would like to thank Brian Mills a long time supporter of the group who gave us a large cuddly teddy bear which was used in the raffle.

Our good friend Angela and her husband Alan were unable to be at the meeting due to a previous arrangement, so with the help of Karen the tea bar was manned without any hitch. Due to our meeting taken place in the afternoon our dear friends Janet and Peter were also unavoidably absent due to a hospital appointment. I would like to say all those who could not attend were sorely missed.

I would like to inform the group that they must be extremely careful when using ATM machines which are in the open air as the latest scam is for bystanders to stand close behind the user and observe the numbers being pressed, this has happened to a good friend of mine so please be careful.

I look forward seeing you all at our June 8th meeting but in the meantime as always I wish you all well.

Best wishes and stay safe

Henry Phillips Chairman

Absent Friend.

Bob and Joe, two elderly friends, met in the park every day to feed the pigeons, watch the squirrels and generally put the world to rights. One day, Bob failed to turn up but Joe thought he probably just had a cold. When a week passed and there was no sign of Bob. Joe began to get concerned, but had no idea where Bob lived.

After a month of not showing up, Joe figured he had probably seen the last of his friend, but one day Bob suddenly reappeared in the park. Joe was delighted to see him again.

Where have you been? He asked.
I`ve been in jail replied Bob

What on earth for?

Well, said Bob, you know that pretty waitress at the coffee shop where I sometimes go?

Yes, What about her?

He claimed I`d sweet talked her into sleeping with me. At eighty-eight years old, I was so proud that, when the case came to court, I pleaded guilty. The judge took one look at me and gave me thirty days for perjury.
